CENTRAL READS will meet Sat., 9/21 @ 9 am in the Hall. Our book for September is Art of Racing in the Rain by Garth Stein.

RETURN OF THE 9:15 AM SERVICE will be delayed until a transitional pastor has been hired. Session made the decision after considering cost, logistics, and additional workload for staff. Also, during this time of transition, one service will keep members in touch with one another and all will receive the same announcements/information regarding the process.

NEW ADULT CLASS begins Sun., 9/8 @ 9:45 am in the Hall. How did a small group of people who encountered the Risen Christ transform into a Church that would eventually spread to the ends of the earth? The first seven chapters of the Book of Acts are a history of the earliest days of the Church in Jerusalem. Many of the foundations of the Church described in Acts are as important to the Church today as they were in the beginning.

WHERE CENTRAL IS WITH A PASTORAL SEARCH

The first step in the pastoral search process is for Central Presbyterian Church to enter into an agreement with a Transitional Pastor. This is where we are now. The Session of Central and the Committee on Ministry of the Presbytery of Tropical Florida have been busily working on this first step. Your Session appointed a Transitional Minister Search team, and they prepared and submitted the paperwork necessary to seek a Transitional Pastor. As many of you know, Transitional Pastors serve in the role of a Pastor and help the congregation through the time of transition as it discerns what type of pastor it needs for the next phase of the church's life. Together with the Session, and Committee on Ministry of the Presbytery, transitional tasks will be completed that will prepare Central for the formation of a Pastor Nominating Committee to search for the next installed pastor for Central. Please continue to pray for the Transitional Pastor search team as its members continue to serve. The session will continue to share information as the church progresses in seeking pastoral leadership.
